PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT SYSTEMS

The Sanketika Vidya Parishad Engineering College is equipped with public announcement system. The Public announcement systems are placed at strategic locations for making announcement of emergency notices or messages to students and staffs on the campus. Each day starts with the National Anthem being played on the public announcement system where all the staffs and students stand in reverence.

- The control room can now provide instant, clear voice alerts to all students and staff members during emergency situations and everyday activities.
- A powerful array of Indoor/Outdoor Public Address horn speakers providing full audio coverage throughout the campus area.
- The system is easy to install and fully maintained by local facility electricians.
- Completely expandable system allowing for indoor and outdoor PA speakers to be easily added or relocated.
